We are excited to announce the continuation of the learning process within our ONLINE community that we created in November 2020. The second online seminar on systemic constellations with our trainer Mr Horst Broemer is scheduled for Sunday, 7 February, 2021, starting at 10 a.m. on the Zoom platform.

An online seminar on family/systemic constellations offers the participants a unique opportunity to get familiar with online systemic constellations method and its practical use in dealing with important topics. The focus of this seminar remains the same - the online method itself, in particular, the two formats of online constellations in individual setting.

Time table

10:00 – 12:00 Opening words and introductory lecture
12:00 – 12:45 break
12:45 – 14:45 constellation works and discussion
14:45 – 15:30 break
15:30 – 17:30 constellation works and discussion, closing

Important notice

The number of participants is limited. Only 22 earliest received registrations will be accepted!

The seminar will be held in English. Consecutive translation from English to BHS languages will be provided by the host.
